Ord. 3 of 1987.

5. (1) The National Security (Amendment) Ordinance, 1987, is hereby repealed.

Repeals and saving.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act, as amended by this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

During the last few months, the activities of the extremist and terrorist elements in the State of Punjab and the Union territory of Chandigarh have been a matter of serious concern. These elements indulged in violent activities and terrorist methods, including threats to persons involved in the investigation and prosecution of cases. Although the entire State of Punjab and the whole of the Union territory of Chandigarh had been declared as "disturbed areas" under the relevant Disturbed Areas Act, there had been no improvement in the effective prevention of these activities. While the deteriorating law and order situation had necessitated the imposition of the President's rule in the State of Punjab, further strong action was found necessary to prevent the terrorists from indulging in activities prejudicial to the security of the State and the maintenance of public order. The State Government had also requested the taking of suitable measures to enable it to take preventive action. Accordingly, the President promulgated on the 9th June, 1987 the National Security (Amendment) Ordinance, 1987 to provide for certain modifications in the application of the National Security Act, 1980 to the State of Punjab and the Union territory of Chandigarh.

2. The Ordinance provided for the following, among other things, namely:—

(a) to increase from 10 days to 15 days the maximum period within which grounds of detention may, in exceptional circumstances, be communicated to the detenu and to increase from 15 days to 20 days up to which the orders made by the officers referred to in subsection (1) of section 3 of the Act shall remain in force without the approval of the State Government;

(b) to provide in certain cases for detention of persons without obtaining the opinion of the Advisory Board for a period of more than three months but not exceeding six months from the date of their detention and to provide also in such cases for a longer maximum period of detention; and

(c) to make the necessary consequential amendments in the Act;

3. The Bill seeks to replace the aforesaid Ordinance.
